1. I claim the name "Baseball Quick" as our trademark. The name is an integral part of our invention and describes in 2 words how a fan can view a baseball game. "Baseball Quick" is a method of recording and editing a baseball game by showing only the last pitch to each batter and any subsequent action. Any action between the last pitch of any batter to the last pitch of another batter shall also be recorded. The result shall be a complete game of every player at bat in approximately 15 minutes.
2. I claim that this method of dispensing a baseball game can be used in the following medias. Television, Radio, Internet, Telephone, and Pagers.
3. I claim there are many ways "Baseball Quick" can be shown or heard. For example it can be dispensed, a) inning by inning while the game is in progress, b) 3rd inning, or 6th inning review while the game is in progress, or c) the whole game shown or heard after the game is over, d) all of the above can also be dispensed on the internet, telephone, pay per view or any hand held device. Finally, all these methods can be repeated at prime time slots or the next morning.
